Ducati Desmoquattro Superbikes Ian Falcone 2002 Ducati stunned the world in 1988 when the struggling, small Italian firm unleashed its Desmoquattro – 8-valve, desmodromic – Superbike. The bike found success on the world's racetracks right from the start. Road-going versions soon carried that success to the general public; proving this design wasn't just another noisy prototype. The Superbikes – 748, 851, 888, 916, and 996 – are now Ducati's best-selling machines in the United States; and the Desmoquattro engine found its way into the company's more pedestrian series such as the Monster roadster and ST4 sport-tour. This is the comprehensive volume on Ducati's ultimate performance motorcycles and replaces the out-of-print Ducati Super Bikes: 851, 888, 916. How Is Your MPA Doing? Robert S. Pomery 2004 Guidebook which aims to improve MPA management by providing a framework that links the goals and objectives of MPAs with indicators that measure management effectiveness. The framework and indicators were field-tested in 18 sites around the world, and results of these pilots were incorporated into the guidebook. Published as a result of a 4-year partnership of IUCN's World Commission on Protected Areas-Marine, World Wildlife Fund, and the NOAA National Ocean Service International Program Office. Stream Corridor Restoration 1998 This document is a cooperative effort among fifteen Federal agencies and partners to produce a common reference on stream corridor restoration. It responds to a growing national and international interest in restoring stream corridors. Successful Writing Virginia Evans 2002 This volume contains the principal papers from an international symposium titled "Historical Painting Techniques, Materials, and Studio Practice" at the University of Leiden in Amsterdam, Netherlands, from June 26 to 29, 1995. The symposium—designed for art historians, conservators, conservation scientists, and museum curators worldwide—was organized by the Department of Art History at the University of Leiden and the Art History Department of the Central Research Laboratory for Objects of Art and Science in Amsterdam. Twenty-five contributors representing museums and conservation institutions throughout the world provide recent research on historical painting techniques, including wall painting and polychrome sculpture. Topics cover the latest art historical research and scientific analyses of original techniques and materials, as well as historical sources, such as medieval treatises and descriptions of painting techniques in historical literature. Chapters include the painting methods of Rembrandt and Vermeer. Dutch 17th-century landscape painting, wall paintings in English churches, Chinese paintings on paper and canvases, and Tibetan thankgas. Color plates and black-and-white photographs illustrate works from the Middle Ages to the 20th century.
